The Daylight Store

Just What We Expected.

When we marked good Suits as low as $3.98 and odd Coats as low as $1.98 we expected a rush in our Garment Department, and we are having it. The remainder of this week, with other values added, will make it a busy one. If you would like, you can select any of these garments and have them laid aside until pay-day.

Ladies' Tailored Suits.

If you cannot afford to leave your order for a $25.00 Suit made to order, you can afford to buy one of these Tailored Suits, in many cases less than price of the skirts alone. In this sale we practically sell the skirts of these Suits and give away the jackets that go with them.

One lot of Jacket Suits in greys and blacks, all-wool materials. These values will surprise you. Your choice of the lot for $3.98 each.

One lot of Suits that were our best sellers this season. Suits that sold readily for $15.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $25.00 now in this sale at half price or less.

Ladies' Jackets.

Here are a few odd Jackets at only $1.98 each.

One lot of Jackets in a variety of styles, all new this season, now at $4.98 each.

One lot of Ladies' Jackets, our leaders, were $17.50, $20.00 and $25.00, now at half price or less.

Ladies' Fur Coats, either street or driving Coats, at cost or less to close. (Fur Coats are more popular each season.)

Bedding Values.

All kinds of Bedding reduced in price. Blankets at about cost. Sheets and Pillow Slips at a liberal discount. Quilts and Bed Puffs marked at a price to close out this week.

One lot of Kid Gloves, sizes 5 3/4 and 6, all are more or less soiled. Your choice of the lot for only 25c.

One lot of White Shetland Floss, the 10c grade, to close at 7c.

Now is a Good Time to Look Our Bargain Tables Over.

The musicale given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Averill of North street last evening for the benefit of the Currier Park Improvement society was a success from a musical standpoint and socially and financially. The programme was exceptionally well carried out.

"Escaped from the Harem," as presented at the opera house last evening is a melodrama that appeals strongly to the gallery and was received with vociferous manifestations from that portion of the large audience in attendance on its presentation last evening. The acting of the blind sister, the villainess and the comical captain was very good.

A Chelsea item says: Miss Lizzie Townsend of Barre, accompanied by her nephew, Frank R. Townsend, was in town Monday and Tuesday visiting her brother, Willard P. Townsend. Frank Townsend left Barre some 20 or more years ago, and after several years spent in Nebraska, Washington, Montana and Idaho, has during the last four years lived upon the coast in Alaska. He is soon to return to take a trip into the interior to continue a mining venture in which he is interested with his brother, Calvin, who is also visiting their father, Calvin R. Townsend, in Barre city.

Let's Get Our Heads Together!

We want to warn you in strict confidence to keep both eyes open. At this season every Clothing house in the country is making a strong bid for your patronage. Keep both eyes open. See what you get for your money. There is an enormous lot of Clothing that seems to have been made especially to figure in "reduced price" sales. Look out what you pay for just now. Don't let low prices get the best of you at the expense of satisfaction. Buy here, where you can be certain of the Clothing you buy; where every offering is the very best of its kind; where stocks are bright and fresh, and where no games of deception of any kind are even for one moment tolerated, and where it's always money back if you want it.
